

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF OKLAHOMA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

Case No. 22-CR-238-JFH

ALEXIS DANIELLE FLANNER,

Defendant.

OPINION AND ORDER

Before the Court is an unopposed motion to continue trial date and motion deadlines (“Motion”) filed by Defendant Alexis Danielle Flanner (“Defendant”). Dkt. No. 56. Defendant represents the United States of America (“Government”) does not oppose the Motion. Id. at 3. For the reasons set forth below, the Motion is GRANTED.

The Motion falls under § 3161(h)(7)(A) of the Speedy Trial Act. This section permits a federal district court to exclude any period of delay resulting from a continuance if “the judge granted such continuance on the basis of his findings that the ends of justice served by taking such action outweigh the best interest of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial.” 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A). A court must orally or in writing set forth its reasons for granting an ends of justice continuance and make findings that a continuance is in the best interest of the defendant and the public. Id. The statute permits a court to consider whether “the failure to grant such a continuance ... would deny counsel for the defendant ... the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence.” Id. at § 3161(h)(7)(B)(iv). The Tenth Circuit has been clear that an ends of justice continuance should not be granted “cavalierly” and it was intended to be a “rarely used tool.” United States v. Williams, 511 F.3d 1044, 1048-49 (10th Cir. 2007).

In United States v. Toombs, 574 F.3d 1262 (10th Cir. 2009), the Tenth Circuit limited the circumstances in which an ends of justice continuance can be granted and emphasized that this should be a rarely used procedural tool. The parties must provide the district court a sufficient record to determine why the facts stated in a motion for continuance “result[] in the need for additional time.” Id. at 1271. This requires the parties to provide specific information about the need for a continuance, and the district court may need to hold a hearing before granting an ends of justice continuance. Id. at 1272-73. A district court must also give significant weight to the public’s interest in a speedy trial, and the public’s interest is generally served by strict adherence to the requirements of the Speedy Trial Act. Id. at 1273.

Defendant requests additional time because the case involves a charge of first degree murder, there is both ongoing discovery and ongoing mental health evaluation, and defense counsel’s location in Idaho adds additional complexity to trial preparation. Dkt. No. 56. Specifically, the Motion states the Government is working in good faith with Defendant to produce discovery, but there are still outstanding requests including autopsy and firearms reports.¹ Id. at 2. Defendant states her counsel will need additional time to review and investigate this discovery upon receipt. Id. Defense counsel is also working with a mental health expert who evaluated Defendant on September 1, 2023, and needs additional time to prepare a report regarding the evaluation. Id. Further, Defendant is housed in Oklahoma but her counsel is located in Idaho. Id. at 3. Because of the protective order in the case, counsel must travel to Oklahoma to personally review discovery materials with Defendant, and additional time is needed to coordinate this travel. Id. The Court finds Defendant has executed a speedy trial waiver, asking the Court to exclude any period of delay for an ends of justice continuance. Dkt. No. 54. In addition to considering Defendant's interests, the Court has considered the public's interest in the speedy resolution of criminal cases and finds that a limited ends of justice continuance will not subvert the public's interest in the prompt prosecution of criminal matters.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the unopposed motion to continue trial date and motion deadlines filed at Dkt. No. 56 is GRANTED. The jury trial set for January 8, 2024 at 8:45 a.m. is stricken. The following amended scheduling order is hereby entered:

Joint status reports regarding production of discovery filed: 10/26/2023

11/22/2023

12/28/2023

Notices filed: 12/28/2023

This includes all notices required by the Rules of Criminal Procedure and Evidence, including but not limited to, notices pursuant to Rule 16, 404(b), 412, 413, 414, or 609.

Motions and objections to notices filed: 1/4/2024

Absent good cause, motions in limine shall be filed by this date

Motions for bill of particulars shall be filed pursuant to FRCrP 7(f)

Pretrial conference: 1/25/2024 at 9:30 am

Voir dire, jury instructions, stipulations, & trial briefs filed: 2/16/2024

Three hard-copy exhibit binders delivered to Court: 2/22/2024 by 4:00 pm

Jury trial: 2/26/2024 at 8:45 am

Due to the Court's multi-district caseload, this schedule is relatively inflexible.

Pursuant to LCrR 47-2, any response shall be filed within seven days of any motion's filing. Replies are not permitted without leave of Court. If leave is granted, replies shall be limited to five pages.

Only one omnibus motion in limine per party and one motion to suppress per defendant is permitted without leave of Court.

The Court shall summarily deny without prejudice any motion that does not comply with LCrR 47-4, which requires a motion state on the first page whether or not it is opposed and, if opposed, state whether concurrence was refused or explain why concurrence could not be obtained.

The parties should meet and confer in good faith to discuss any stipulations that would streamline the issues at trial. Any stipulations agreed to should be submitted by the date listed.

If the parties anticipate a lengthy pretrial/motion hearing, they are directed to promptly contact the Courtroom Deputy and the hearing will be reset.

If the parties anticipate a plea of guilty, they are directed to promptly contact the Courtroom Deputy and a change of plea hearing (separate from the Pretrial Docket Call) will be set. The parties must provide a petition to enter plea of guilty and any plea agreement (if applicable) to the Court and file any superseding information (if applicable) at least three business days prior to the Change of Plea Hearing.

The parties are encouraged to review the Court's Criminal Guidelines.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the time from January 8, 2024, inclusive, to February 26, 2024, inclusive, is excludable pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7).

Dated this 5th day of October 2023.
